

Six Seconds Brain Profiler Certification:

Learn to use four powerful, practical EQ tools to develop insight & performance

The Brain profiles distil the power of an advanced emotional intelligence assessment tool into one page for compelling, quick, meaningful insight.

This course is ideal for people wanting to develop the people side of performance and to improve communication by building awareness of brain styles.

The Brain profiles are powerful, practical and highly engaging.

Become certified as a Six Seconds Brain Profiler able to purchase and administer these individual and group profiles.
